PERSPECTIVE FROM THE TOP

“An excellent opportunity to get top management’s perspective on pollution prevention and its significance in today’s business environment.”
- Dan Murray, Utilimaster Corp.

Tom Reilly, Chairman of the Board for the American Chemistry Council, Society of Chemical Industry and Reilly Industries, Inc., is this year’s keynote speaker. He will speak about Pollution Prevention from a Chairman’s perspective. He will share why a chairman chooses to adopt a pollution prevention management system, what those of us who implement the system should be mindful of, and what he expects for the future.

Mr. Reilly brings 38 years of Chemical Industry experience, starting in the chemistry lab and leading to the boardroom. He represents the third generation of Reillys to serve the 105-year-old Reilly Industries, which has grown from a $20 million to a $350 million company during his tenure. Although the company’s products are intermediates that few in the public sector would recognize, Mr. Reilly has kept a much higher profile through his leadership in industry associations.

Mr. Reilly graduated from Stanford with a BS in Economics and went on to earn an MBA from Harvard. He serves as Director and Trustee of several organizations.
